Aloecorp Inc. Acquires Aloe vera division of Pharmachem

Aloecorp Inc., a global leader in the Aloe vera industry, is proud to announce the acquisition of the Aloe vera division of Pharmachem Innovations, LLC. This strategic acquisition brings another state-of-the-art processing facility into Aloecorp's portfolio, which now spans three cutting-edge production locations in Mexico.

“Increasing our production capacity to deliver high-quality Aloe vera ingredients has always been a cornerstone of our mission,” said Kyeong Soo (KS) Yoon, CEO of Aloecorp Inc. “A few years ago, we doubled our production capabilities with the launch of our second processing facility. This latest addition marks another significant step forward, enabling us to meet growing demand while maintaining our unwavering commitment to excellence. Now with this new addition, we have increased our capacity further as we continue to provide the highest quality Aloe vera ingredients to bring the best of nature to humankind.”

This acquisition reinforces Aloecorp's position as an industry leader dedicated to innovation, sustainability, and delivering the finest aloe vera ingredients to the world.
